From Monday July 19. to Thursday July 22. 1680.

Tangier, June 16.

THe Sixth Inſtant the Earl of Inchiquin parted from hence for England: Sir Palmes Fairborne, who now Commands in Chief, is finiſhing the Work begun by Vice-Admiral Herbert, and is doing ſeveral other things, which will add to the ſtrength of the place. The Moors keep a Guard of 400 Foot, beſides their Horſe in their Trenches, who are relieved every morning. We have Advice, that at Sally they are fitting out ten men of War, mounted from 8 to 20 Guns each; and that two of the Algerines, which ſome time ſince were engaged with Capt. Pin in the Hampſhire, to ſecure themſelves, put into Sally, where one of them of 24 Guns, ſtriking upon the Bar, was broke in pieces.

Madrid, June 30. The laſt week the King and the Queen were entertained with a Bull-Feaſt, and 30 Bulls were killed, though not without the wounding of ſeveral of the Combatants. The Prince of Parma is preparing for his departure for Flanders, to enter upon the Government of thoſe Countreys. It's believed, he will take his journey by Land through France. The Count de Gubernatis, Envoye from Savoye, has Orders to remain here, till the arrival of the Marquis de Dronero, who comes from that Court with the Character of Ambaſſador.

Stockholme, June 30. The King came hither five days ſince, and has been twice in the Senate. The Sieur Lyonberg is preparing to return for England, as Envoye Extraordinary from this Crown. The King has named Count Bengt Oxenſterne to be Governor of Schonen.

Genoua, July, 10. This week the Ruby, Captain Smith, returned from the Rivera, to attend here the coming of the Convoy from Spain, which is hourly expected. There are in this Port ſix Engliſh Merchant Ships more, bound home. At Final are arrived three great Dutch Ships from Cadiz and Alicant, having on board 1400 Soldiers, for the Service of the State of Milan and 3000 more are daily expected. The twelve French Gallies are, by reaſon of the bad weather, got no farther than Porto Venero.

Hamburg, July 13. The laſt French Poſt brought hither Bills of Exchange for one hundredthouſand Crowns, to be paid to the Duke of Zell; who, upon Receipt of this Money, will quit Boxthoede. The King of Sweden has confirmed to the City of Straelſond their Priviledges. The King of Denmark was according to our laſt Advice, ſtill at Gluckſtad

Strasburg, July 16. From Augsburg they write, that Count Mansfelt, the Emperors Envoye Extraordinary to the French King, would part from thence in few days on his way to France, having performed his Quarantain. The Baron de Monclar continues encamped near Landaw. It is ſtill reported, that the Mareſchal de Crequi will come and Command an Army in theſe parts.

Francfort, July 18. The Elector Palatine having cauſed the late Governor of the Caſtle of Falkenburg, to be Tryed before a Council of War for having ſurrendred the ſame to the French, when he was in a condition to have Defended it; he was Condemned, and Sentenced to be Beheaded; which has been accordingly Executed. The Plague grows more and more violent at Prague, there dying 1000 or 1200 weekly. The Imperial Court is at preſent at Linz, and will continue there till November, when it will return to Vienna. The Empreſs is ſeveral months gone with Child, to the great joy of that Court. From Munick we have an Account, that the 11th Inſtant, the Elector of Bavaria was Declared to be at Age, which was done with much Solemnity, and that his Electoral Highneſs had taken the Government upon himſelf. There is a Diſcourſe of a Marriage between him, and a Daughter of the Duke of Neuburg.

Cologne, July 23. The firſt Inſtant arrived here the Earl of Middleton, Envoye Extraordinary from the King of England to the Emperor; and yeſterday he parted again to purſue his Journey. What is written from Strasburg, of the Mareſchal de Crequi's coming to Command an Army in Alſace, merits little Credit; and we are told from good hands, that the French Cavalry now in Alſace, is ordered to march to the Saar, to joyn the Dragoons Commanded by the Marquis de Bouffleurs: and then to march together towards the Meuſe, to meet the King, about the middle of the next month, and to Muſter in his Preſence.

Amſterdam, July 26. We have an Account from Heuſden, of a very ſad Accident that happened there the 24th Inſtant, the Lightning having in the night, pierced the Wall of the Great Tower, where was kept a great quantity of Powder, and ſet fire to it; the ſaid Tower, the Caſtle, and greateſt part of the Street adjoyning, were blown up, and the reſt of the Town extreamly torn and ſhattered; about 60 Perſons are known to have been killed, and about 200 more are miſſing, the farther particulars we as yet know not; but in general it is ſaid, that the Damages are greater than what were ſuffered at Delf in the year 1654.

Hague, July 26. The States of Holland having formerly laid an Impoſition upon the Turff of Frieſland, which is carried this way into Zealand, the States of that Province have in return laid as great a duty upon the Beer of Holland, that paſſes through Zealand for Flanders, which having occaſioned great complaints on both ſides, endeavours are now uſing to compoſe matters, which the Prince of Orange, as Stadtholder, will, it's believed, effect, and bring the two Provinces to a right underſtanding again. The Sieur Romſwinkell, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburg, is recalled home, the Sieur Blaſpiel being appointed to ſucceed him. Yeſterday the

Prince
